Hilton Garden Inn Suffolk sold to Landmark Hotel Group

Landmark Hotel Group has acquired ownership of the Hilton Garden Inn Suffolk from Noble Investment Group. Landmark will continue to operate the hotel as a Hilton Garden Inn and will also manage the attached Suffolk Conference Center. The company will make significant upgrades to the property, including new 32-inch flat-panel TVs, ergonomic chairs, and new bedding for each room in the three-year-old property.

Landmark Hotel Group is a hospitality management company, which owns and operates six hotels along the East Coast with an additional three under development. Headquartered in Virginia Beach, Landmark is known for its world-class amenities, sparkling clean facilities, friendly staff members, and dedication to excellent service.

“Landmark Hotel Group has a long history of excellence in hospitality management. We look forward to leveraging our expertise and local knowledge to further improve upon the success of the Hilton Garden Inn and Suffolk Convention Center,” said Landmark Vice President Akhil Jain. “We are very excited to be a part of Suffolk’s dynamic and continued growth.”

“We look forward to the Hilton Garden Inn and Suffolk Conference Center continuing its performance as one of the best hotel and conference centers in the Hampton Roads region,” said Mayor Linda T. Johnson. “Guests should feel confident that they will continue to receive the best level of customer service possible because Landmark is a locally-owned hotel management group that brings an added measure of quality and commitment to its projects.”
