A C A D E M Y

Nansemond-Suffolk Academy, founded in 1966, is an independent, non-profit, coeducational, college-preparatory day school, which offers an academic program encompassing pre-kindergarten through the twelfth grade. Governed by a Board of Trustees, the Academy seeks to admit students who are prepared to enter an academically challenging environment. To prepare students for success in a pluralistic society, the Academy pursues diversity as a compound of a selective enrollment process.
