Newport News Shipbuilding Employees' Credit Union Opening in Suffolk

SUFFOLK, VA., May 17, 2004 – Newport News Shipbuilding Employees' Credit Union is proud to announce the opening of its ninth office located at 1463 North Main Street in Suffolk. The 2,450 square foot full-service financial center is located on North Main Street in the Suffolk Shopping Center. George Dudley, Jr., President and CEO stated, "We are extremely pleased to open such a convenient location to serve our members who live in the Suffolk community, and we are excited about being an integral part of Suffolk's future growth."

More than $100,000 in new capital improvements have been made to the facility. The full-service office includes five lobby teller windows, two drive-thru teller lanes and a 24-hour drive-up ATM machine. The facility also has safe deposit boxes and will provide a wide range of financial products and services including financial brokerage services. A total of ten employees will staff the office.

The office is now open for business and will hold a fun-filled, week-long Grand Opening Celebration May 17 – 21, 2004. On Wednesday May 19, 2004, at 8:30 AM, there will be a formal grand opening program.

“The City of Suffolk is greatly pleased by the decision of Newport News Shipbuilding Employees’ Credit Union to locate a branch office” said Suffolk Mayor E. Dana Dickens, III. “We wish them continued success and look forward to a long-lasting business relationship.”

Newport News Shipbuilding Employees’ Credit Union is a state-chartered credit union with $836 million in assets. It operates a total of nine offices in Newport News, Hampton, Grafton, Smithfield and Suffolk. Its mission is to build life-long financial relationships with its members, delivering exceptional personal service, providing convenient access to a wide range of quality financial products and services, and assist and educate its members in achieving their financial goals.
